Woojung Education and Culture Foundation | Scholarship Form

New Applicants

TO THE APPLICANT

- To apply for the scholarship please submit the scholarship form.
- As long as you meet the following requirements and have been recommended by your Embassy you are eligible to apply.
 - A foreign student studying in Korea seeking financial support for tuition fee and living cost. (One must enroll formally at a university as an undergraduate or graduate student. Students enrolled in language classes do not qualify)
 - 2. Confirm that you do not exceed the term of the scholarship
 - (The reference start date is the date you begin school)
 - Undergraduate students in 4 year university : First 8 semesters (First 4 years)
 - Master's degree students
 - PhD degree students
- : First 6 semesters (First 3 years)

: First 4 semesters (First 2 years)

Follow Embassy guidelines

- Joint Master's and PhD degree students : First 8 semesters (First 4 years)

Note : We are unable to offer scholarships beyond the noted terms.

- A student who has acquired over 80 points score (equivalent to a grade of B) of academic records. But if the student has financial difficulties, this shall also be considered.
 Note : A student must have at least one semester of grades and as a full time student from a four year Korean university to apply for the scholarship. (In order to determine academic potential).
- 4. A student with good manners.
- 5. A student with no government scholarship. Students receiving no scholarships from any source will receive preferential consideration when selecting Woojung scholarship recipients.

IMPORTANT DEADLINES AND DATES

1. Application submission date to Embassy

Please submit you application to your Embassy promptly, at the designated deadline.

• The foundation will in turn evaluate all applications on August 17, 2020.

2. Scholarship Decision

The decision regarding the scholarship will be notified soon after.

3. Scholarship Ceremony

During normal years all recipients must attend the biannual Scholarship Ceremony to receive the scholarship and certificate. But due to COVID-19, the 2020 fall ceremony is canceled once again. The certificates will instead be mailed to your home address.
